Included in this Bulletin: Your New Affordable Housing Overview Website is Here!

Great news! You've been asking for it, and waiting for it, and it is now here: The much anticipated Affordable Housing website is designed to provide you with comprehensive, easily read program information for all of our Valued Partner Down Payment Assistance programs (DPAs).

Now you can access program information not only for the Housing Finance Agency (HFA) programs, but for over 80 stand-alone DPAs that you can offer.

Locating the programs that are right for your borrower is easy. This intuitive technology presents in one menu with multiple search features.

The screenshot shows a search interface with four dropdown menus: "Select State", "Select Program Type", "Active", and a search bar containing "redlands". To the right are two buttons: "FIND" and "DISPLAY ALL". Below the interface, four blue arrows point to the dropdown menus, and the text "Search by State Search by Program Type Search by funding status Search by key words" is displayed.

This proprietary tool replaces the list of programs with a link to agency websites with little or no program details.

Try it today – we know you will enjoy this New Resource.
